BUNGONIA HISTORY ON DISPLAY AT THE HALL

Photo showing The winner of the raffle that was drawn on the day which, won by a very surprised Lorraine Westley standing in front of one of her many large paintings of the area exhibited by Lorraine on the day.

There was also many beautiful hands made card of Bungonia on sale by local photographer Jennifer Dunthorne.

The tea, coffee, scones, cakes and slices supplied by CWA ladies and a few of the hard working ladies of the Historical society were appreciated by the visitors.

Bungonia and District Historical Society Inc.

17th September History Week Exhibition was a great success to those who visited, worked on and ,shared the excitement of seeing something new ,something old , unusual or beautiful. All the bits and pieces from the diggings were on display to tell their stories. Superb paintings, drawings and photographs telling the story of Bungonia Past and Present were hung around the walls and stands. The Photography Award went to Jennifer Dunthorne for her excellent photos and the Other Media category Award was won by Lorraine Westley for her lovely paintings.

Many visitors drew up chairs and dug deep into the photo albums, used the computer

CD Rom information and other historical records on the tables.

The CWA ladies kept a steady provision of fresh and delicious scones, slices and drinks coming to the patrons.

I wish to thank the 29 individuals and organisations who so warmly and generously helped with the details of mounting the Exhibition.

Poor weather, the petrol costs kept some at home – BUT, don't worry –they'll have another chance to share the Heritage experience next year.

DISPLAY OF ARTIFACTS DUG UP LOCALLY BY ARCHAEOLOGISTS

The Raffle basket of goodies was won by an excited Loz Westley "I've never won anything in my life before!" who predicted a party for friends with her winnings.
